Six Die When Fire Sweeps Fifth Avenue Tenement

Three Others Reported To Be Very Seriously Burned.

WOMEN TRAPPED

Sinai Hospital Patients Were Alarmed When They Saw The Reflection Of The Fire In The Sky.

NEWYORK, Dec. 16 (AP)—Six persons are known to have perished by a fire which swept the brick tenement house on Fifth Avenue early today. Thon bodies were recovered.

Three others were seriously burned and the flames drove families into the streets in their night clothing. The fire was only two blocks from Mount Sinai hospital. The noise and confusion awakened the patients who found the sky burning red.

Doctors and nurses patrolled the wards pulling down the blinds and assuring the patients that there was no danger. Five of the dead are believed to be women who were trapped in the upper floors of the tenement.

Those suffering from cold and exposure were taken in by neighbors while those with relatives ran from home in a neffort to find them. The fire was discovered by patrolmen shortly after three o'clock.

AMERICANS FIND TRAVEL IS HIGH

American Is Only One To Suffer Expenses and Exasperations Of Post War Travel.

LONDON, (AP)—The expenses and exasperations of post-war travel with passports are gradually being reduced for everybody except Americans.

Beginning December 1 British subjects for only seven shillings six pence can obtain passports valid for five years from the date of issue No visas at all will be required for visiting most of the continental countries to which the English go in large numbers. The Briton simply puts his $1.75 passport in his pocket and crosses the channel For an extra five shillings he can have his passport extended to ten years

His lot is a lucky one compared to that of the American traveling abroad. First of all the American must pay his own government $10 to get a passport which expires in 2 months and cannot be extended for a period longer than two years from the date of issue. Then for each country he visits, except Switzerland and Belgium, he must pay another $10 for a visa.

The American is merely an innocent bystander suffering from a title game of retaliation against his government. When the United States began charging $10 for visas to visit America foreign nations, instead of turning the other cheek, gave the Yankee a wallop by charging Americans $10 each to cross their frequent frontiers. As not frequently happens, Europe comes out ahead in this little game. Only a few thousand Europeans visit America each year, while tens of thousands of Americans tour Europe, and most of them pay from $20 to $50 each for visas. The Liberal British press, and the people it represents, seems deeply to long for the good old days of no passports at all, considering them, now that the war is over, "a sinister reflection on a peaceful mind."

RAILROAD LEASE NOW APPROVED

L. & N. To Take Over C. C. & O. and Now Surveying for Extension to the South.

The Interstate Commerce Commission have approved the 99 year lease of the Clinchfield Carolina and Ohio railroad to the L. & N which has been hanging fire for quite some time but will now go into effect.

It is stated on good authority, that the L & N are going into Harlan where they will follow up one of the numerous creeks, tunnel through the mountain to Rose Hill and on to Spear's Ferry. It is said the road will be built at a greater elevation than the present railroad point to be decided on later. This new extention will give the mines of this territory an outlet to the south which will be in important market for this section once it can be reached conveniently.

At the local office of the L & N confirmation of this report was not made, Mr. Hollingsworth stating that all such information must come from the offices at Louisville "It is my understanding that surveying is going on ad one of the routes will soon be decided on," stated Mr. Hollingsworth

MIDDLEWEST LOSES FROM BOGUS STOCKS

Fraudulent Promoters Take Heavy Toll In Section.

MICHIGAN FIRST

Wolverine State Is Heavy Loser—Ohio and Indiana Are Next.

NEW YORK. (AP)—The industrial middleswest, Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, is probably the heaviest loser in the country by the operations of the fraudulent stock promoter, according to at nation-wide survey now being undertaken by the National Vigilance Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

The survey is based upon the answers to a questionnaire sent out to 40 Better Business Bureaus and nearly 300 Chambers of Commerce in every state in the country. It revealed that the per capita stock loss throughout the country is about $6 and that the group of individuals who pay the highest toll are mine and factory workers, chiefly of foreign birth.

Next to Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, the industrial east—Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts and, to a less extent, New Jersey—is the heaviest loser in the country The old south and the agricultural middlewest of Iowa, the Dakotas, Kansas and Nebraska, are relatively immune from fraudulent stock promotion And so also but to a less extent, is the Rocky Mountain region. Along the Pacific coast, particularly, the southern part, and in Texas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas, the losses again are heavier

The highest per capita loss of any town or group of towns, $40 was reported by seven adjoining towns in Pennsylvania. The combined population of all of these towns is about 10,000. Two cities of 40,000 population, one in Michigan and one in Ohio, each reported a loss of $1,000,000, or $25 per capita.

It is a significant fact, however, Lou E Holland, president of the Associated Advertising clubs of the World, said in commenting on the survey and its objective of 'Investigate before You Invest,' that although 90 per cent of the organizations reported losses in their communities during the past year thru fraudulent or highly speculative investment, 75 per cent of this number believed that their educational and vigilance methods had proved effective in reducing them. Only about 20 per cent reported no increase in effectiveness and only about 5 percent reported a decrease.

Mr. Holland cited examples showing how the work of the vigilance organizations had saved the public and legitimate business many millions of dollars. In Detroit the Better Business Bureau in three years had reduced fraudulent stock losses from about $35,000,000 to $15,000,000 In Long Beach, Cal, stock promotion schemes aggregating over $63,000,000 had been checked in seven months and their promoters thrown into bankruptcy.

Although the aggregate stock losses throughout the country are now about $600,000,000 a year, Mr. Holland estimates that in the next two or three years, with adequate public cooperation in the "Before You Invest—Investigate" movement, this amount will have been cut in half, and $300,000,000 will be turned back into the pockets of the American people.

APPELLATE COURT TO TAKE HOLIDAY

Vacation Commences Next Week To Last Until Beginning Of Winter Term.

FRANKFORT, Ky, Dec. 16 (AP)—The Court of Appeals this week is finishing business of the fall term. A two weeks' holiday vacation begins next week to last until beginning of the winter term January 5.

An action brought on 'The House that Jack Built" principle was disclosed at the last handing down of opinions.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Phillips sued the city of Elizabethtown and the Kentucky Utilities Company for damages resulting from loss of their home by fire. The Hardin circuit court decided against the Phillips and they appealed The Court of Appeals absolved the Utilities company from payment of damages but reversed judgment as to the city and ordered a new trial.

The action against the utilities company was made up upon the same principle as "The House that Jack Built," of Mother Goose fame, Commissioner Drury, writing declared:

'This is the company that supplies the current, that drives the motor, that runs the pump, that pumps the water, that fills the mains, that feeds the pipes, that conveys the water to the home of the appellants"

Judgment appealed from a Leslie circuit court land case was affirmed by the appellate court finding unfounded a contention that a special term of the lower court was illegally held because the notice for calling the term was posted after dark and that the day of the posting cannot be counted as one of the necessary ten days.

"Where time is an element of fact. its beginning is deemed to have been coincident with the first moment of the day of the event," Judge Dietzman declared. "The laws takes no account of fractions of a day."

Differences between the Horns and Cornetts, all "in the family" over a contract in "wilds lands in Perry county," were settled by the lower court and affirmed by the higher court. This was the keynote of Judge Thomas' opinion whose prelude began:

'The Horns and the Cornetts, who were members of the same family, became discordant. To restore their former harmony they applied to the Perry Circuit court before which they chanted their troubles, and it adjudged them jointly blamable therefor, and this appeal by the latter brings the case here that we might play our part in bringing the members of the family orchestra in accord."

STAGE ATTRACTS GERMAN BEAUTIES

Day Is Past When Chorus Girls Were Looked Upon As Possessing Dubious Morals.

BERLIN (AP)—The daughter of a German admiral prominent in the world war, daughters of school principals, physicians, lawyers and musical conductors, and wives of thoroughly respectable bookkeepers and office employees figure among the chorus girls of the musical comedies and revues now running in Berlin. They bear evidence to the fact that the day is past when the chorus girl was looked upon as a person of doubtful morals or whom adventurous cavaliers could lavish their attentions.

So marked has become the change that German ushers who are caught answering questions as to the home addresses of chorus girls, or who accept the mission of carrying notes or floral offerings from theater-going men to members of the chorus, are dismissed without further ado.

Advertisements for positions in the chorus nowadays bring out a large number of responses from the educated middle class. Economic distress compels many young women who would formerly have remained at home waiting for a husband, to engage in some calling. To some girls the idea of spending their lives behind a typewriter does not appeal. If they have a good figure and are graceful in their movements, they see no reason why they should not make capital out of these attributes and accomplishments.

War On Stowaways In City Of Manila

MANILA, (AP)—Manila's fame up and down the China coast as a good port for beachcombers, where stowing away on army transports has been easy, is passing away.

Sneeze gas, furnished by the chemical warfare service of the Philippine department of the United States army, is forced into the hold of every transport for a period of 24 hours just before departure, thus making the hold uninhabitable. Not a single stowaway was found on the transport Thomas when it touched at China on its last trip On previous trips the discovery of 15 or 20 was not uncommon

Confession Made After Night Of Questioning To Be Thrown Out.

DENIES CHARGE

Confession Was Obtained By "Duress Persuasion" According To Her Attorney Who Fights Use of Statement.

MOUNT VERNON, Ill, Dec. 16 (AP)—Judge J. C. Kearn ruled today that an alleged confession from Mrs. Elsie Sweetin to officers after a night of questioning could not go to the jury as evidence in her trial with Lawrence Hight for the poisoning of her husband, Wilford Sweetin.

A fight to exclude the signed statement made by Mrs. Sweetin that she thrice administered poison which caused the death of her husband was renewed by the attorney. He declared that the confession was made by duress persuasion.

Hight accused her of murder repeatedly while she denied it repeatedly to her attorney.

Outline Advantages Of L. M. University

HARROGATE, Dec. 16.—Declaring that one of the greatest needs of the country is a progressive attitude on the part of school teachers, Dr. J. W. Morland, dean of Lincoln Memorial University, Saturday, addressed the teachers' meeting in Dandridge, Tennessee on "Recent Tendencies in Education." W. I. Jones, field secretary, made a talk on the educational advantages offered for teachers at Lincoln Memorial.

In his address Doctor Morland stressed the importance of character education, discussing the need for practical training for the practical phases of life. He declared that character and cultural education should not be subordinated to the practical training but should be thoroughly coordinated with it.

Mr. Jones spoke of the personal contact between students and teachers and of the efforts made to provide for the individual needs of the students at the University. He emphasized the many opportunities for self-help to be in the many industrial departments thereby making it possible for students with little money to secure an education. "And on the recreational side," he said, "there's the new community hall and basket ball court which will be finished and ready for use by the opening of the winter term, January 5."

"SILENT NIGHT HOLY NIGHT" FIRST SUNG ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

"Silent Night, Holy Night," for many decades the favorite Christmas carol of the German-speaking world, will be sung with particular devotion this Christmas because it was just 100 years ago that this universal song was first sung at a Yuletide celebration.

While school children heretofore have sung and loved the carol, without knowing anything of its origin, this year they will be taught two names which have almost lapsed into oblivion— those of Pastor Mohr and Teacher Gruber, of Salzburg, Austria, who respectively composed the words and the music.

In a number of churches and Sunday schools special ceremonies will be conducted in connection with the singing of the carol.

Christmas In The Cumberlands

Blue smoke may be seen curling up from the chimneys of the homes in the valleys and on the hillsides; the voices of little children ring out in the sharp mountain air; tinkling cow-bells, strapped to the necks of cattle echo across the mountains; a spirit of peace is abroad in the land, and it is Christmas eve in the Cumberlands.

The community schoolhouse, with mountain evergreens, such as the holly, mistletoe, hemlock and cedar as decorations, is the center of attraction for the highland settlement for the evening; here the Sunday school meets regularly from Sunday to Sunday, and of all the special occasions which the school observes the Christmas porgram is the climax, bringing joy and gladness into many homes and lives.

Early twilight finds the mountain roads and paths leading to the schoolhouse crowded with people, eager to see the Christmas tree, with its tinsel, candles, and bells, in a background of native evergreens, and the children gathering to render their program of song and recitation.

"Joy to the World a Savior is born," is their opening song, and the program proceeds in simplicity in keeping with the one whose birthday they honor, and at the conclusion of which the gifts from the tree are distributed under the direction of the Sunday school which is the conserver of all that is good and wholesome in mountain community life.

Returning home from the Christmas exercises the children are happy in a Savior's love as they gather about their humble firesides to enjoy the remembrances of the occasion.

Some of the winding roads of the hills have their stories of tragedy, privation, hardship, individualism, community attitudes, favorable and unfavorable, as all sections of the country have in various ways, but the name of Jesus the Mountaineer of Galilee, is reverenced everywhere as having the words of eternal life.

To the little schoolhouse in the Cumberlands is due credit for a two-fold service, the training of the mind in the week day school, and the training of the heart in the Sunday school both of which are fundamental to the welfare of our Nation.

And may the observance of Chrstmas in the Cumberlands continue rnated in interest and enthusiasm from year to year in honor of Christ who brought true freedom into the World.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

WASHINGTON—The New England literary influence of half a century ago is reflected in the White House breakfasts inaugurated by President Coolidge.

In adopting the breakfast table as the testing ground for administration plans and proposals, Coolidge, whether consciously or unconsciously, follows the psychology underlying the "Breakfast Table Series" of Oliver Wendell Holmes, in which that author and philosopher chose breakfast time as the hour when reason reigned most clearly and when the kernels of truth and fact could be sorted from the chaff of confused thought.

At the head of the White House table, then, over the wheat cakes and sausage, President Coolidge expects not only to get his own plans on straight, but to help straighten the views of leaders in House and Senate through whom he will have to work if legislative harmony is to prevail.

And whether he so intends it or not, he becomes, in effect, a reincarnation of "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

AMONG the views put forward as the "real reason" why the president utilizes the breakfast hour for his contacts with senators and congressmen are:

"No one is conceited in the early morning."

"Guests are at their brightest and best at the beginning of a day; are more receptive and more responsive." (The receptivity referred to has to do with ideas, not food).

"Breakfasts are more informal and intimate than either luncheons or dinners. One doesn't have to 'dress' for them. Everybody is at his 'peppiest' and there is a minimum of restraint."

One caustic-tongued Democrat further remarks:

"Breakfasts go with presidential economy. They're cheaper than dinners."

ALTHOUGH a common form of political entertainment abroad, breakfasts have not been utilized in Washington as an occasion for chatting affairs of state except in the case of Senator Mark Hanna of Ohio, the political godfather of President McKinley.

Hanna's Sunday morning breakfasts, in the old Cameron House on Lafayette Square, a stone's throw from the White House, were famous affairs.

Corned beef hash, hot rolls and coffee was the set menu for these occasions and they made a reputation for Maggie, Hanna's cook, that is still a mark for ambitious hash slingers to shoot at.

THE first lesson learned by William Butler, G. O. P. chairman, as a senator, was that "squatter's rights" are not recognized as valid in the upper house.

The day Congress convened, Butler entered the chamber early and planted himself in the strategically advantageous seat which had been occupied by Senator Lodge, as Republican leader.

Having been appointed to fill Lodge's seat, he intended to do it literally, it seemed. Senior senators, some of them with an eye on the seat themselves, objected to what they termed the newcomer's "assumption and presumption."

So a formal assignment of seats was made for new senators and Mr. Butler was moved into the back row, next seat to Magnus Johnson.

WASHINGTON business men want to start "Coolidge Prosperity" with an "old-fashioned inauguration." Meaning a big crowd and high prices.

The MAGIC TOUCH

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

THAT progressive wide-awake manufacturers are persistent advertisers. That kind of advertising makes for permanent success.

THAT attractively advertised lines are always good for steady sales. They are always better for service, therefore, easier to sell.

THAT advertised brands are of the biggest value that can be obtained. That fact is known to most every one.

THAT persistent advertising means progress, and progress means success.

THAT people are constantly looking through the advertising columns for new and better things. Products not represented there, have a slim chance to be known.

THAT advertised products register an appeal to the people that makes the thoughts of buying any other kind fade away quickly.

PERSISTENT, TRUTHFUL ADVERTISING IS A BUILDER OF STEADY AND CERTAIN BUSINESS. IT IS THE GREATEST KNOWN REMEDY FOR POOR BUSINESS.

BUSINESS CONCERNS WHO DO NOT ADVERTISE ARE PLAYING A DANGEROUS GAME. NON-ADVERTISERS ARE TREATED WITH INDIFFERENCE BECAUSE THEY ARE NEVER KNOWN.

TOM SIMS SAYS--

Government bonds are being sold to raise three or four billions, indicating Uncle Sam may buy some Christmas presents.

France don't want to pay us anything for 10 years. The French, it seems, think Uncle Sam is Santa Claus.

Silent airplanes are not the greatest threat of the next war. The thought that the Red Cross may issue crossword puzzles scares us.

It's funny how some respected citizens regard "Please Remit" on an overdue bill as nothing short of blackmail.

The carol, "Silent Night, Holy Night," is 100 years old this Christmas, which should be celebrated.

Steamboat load of autos sank in Lake Erie. All the crew and maybe a few pedestrians were saved.

The postoffice lost almost forty millions in 1923, mostly on second and third class. Being below first-class never pays.

Loeb and Leopold, it seems now, got the greatest punishment. They are being made to teach school.

Christmas isn't what it used to be when there was no income tax payment due 10 days before.

Justas we were feeling some better a New York woman up and died and left $7000 to a pet cat.

They say poets are born. Now doesn't that sound like a poet? Trying to dodge the blame.

Princess Mary Made Emeralds Popular

LONDON, (AP)—Sapphires and emeralds have become the most popular jewels, apart from the ever-fashionable diamonds and pearls, among English women, according to West End jewelers, while for some unaccountable reason there is little call for rubies, and amber and jade have lost much of their popularity of a few years ago. Flexible platinum bracelets, studded with diamonds, emeralds, sapphires and rubies, are fashion's latest jewelry fad.

Princess Mary is said to have been responsible for the sudden popularity of emeralds. Her engagements ring was a particularly beautiful emerald, and created an immediate and pressing demand for the stones. Then it was discovered that sapphires combined strikingly with the green jewels, and they also jumped into favor.

One feature of the new fads, according to jewelers, is the passing of the choker necklace of pearls or large metal or colored beads. Ropes of pearls, however, are as popular as ever.

BRISTOL, Dec. 16—Students at Sullins college played Santa Claus to eighty boys and girls when they assembled in the college chapel Monday evening. This practice of giving to the poor every Christmas has been carried out at the college for five years. The names of the kiddies were furnished by the local Salvation Army and each girl brought for the boy or girl that had been given her.

the third time thirty-two cars of shiny silver dollar spent at the circus here many years ago by Mr. Miller, formerly of Danville, Ill., has come back to its owner, according to Mr. Miller

Forty two years ago he came his first dollar at Danville. He marked his initials on the coin which was issued in 1882, the year of his birth. Later he parted with the silver piece at a circus in Bristol, and in the thirty five intervening years the coin came back to Miller's hands three times

Thirteen years after the first parting the coin was given to him in Danville in payment of car fare on the city car of which he was conductor. A short time later he lost the dollar

Some time ago a tourist buying gasoline in Indian River City, Ill., where Miller is now located presented him the dollar for the third time

The coin evidently has had an eventful experience but is well preserved and nearly as bright as it was at the time of its birth in 1882

Miss Sophia Efron returned home Monday night from an extended visit to points east.

A Peterson and wife from Lake Geneva, Wisconsin are stopping in Middlesboro en route home from Florida. Mr. Peterson drove to Florida four weeks ago and in speaking of the trip to a reporter said, "We went by an eastern route by way of Washington, not knowing of the comforts of travel on the Dixie Highway. The roads east are crowded with traffic and by night a tourist feels he has done a days work rather then being on a pleasure trip, but not so in this part of the country where one can travel at ease. Also comfortable accomidations seem easier to find then in the crowded eastern centres. Kentucky looks good to me. My wife and I are no especial hurry to get home but we did not find a place which really attracted us until we arrived in Middlesboro. If tourists knew of the good traveling on the Dixie Highway and good accomidations coupled with the beautiful scenery I am sure you would find a flood of tourists coming this way to and from Florida every spring and fall. Mr and Mrs. Peterson plan to remain in Middlesboro a few days taking side trips from here to Wallins, Big Stone Gap and other points of interest.

THE COVERED WAGON AT MANRING THEATRE TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

There are few pictures having the historical value which is credited to The Covered Wagon, the picture to be shown here two nights this week, tonight and tomorrow. The Covered Wagon deals in love and pathos intermingled with the struggles of the pioneers in their successful effort to reach Oregon and place their plows in Oregon soil. There is not too much pathos, not enough to make one sad, but it does make one remember. One bit which is dear to the heart of every child of a pioneer is the time when it was necessary for the travelers to lighten their wagons to float them across a raging river. It was decided that the family "dresser" belonging to Grandma should be left behind but Grandma intervened as the top drawer contained her geranium seeds which she had brought all those weary miles to plant in the soil of Oregon. The picture also shows a fight with the Indians and take it all in all is a picture that every man woman and child should see. Especially is this true of children who are at this time studying the history of America.

Lighten Work Of Postal Employees

Uncle Sam is gradually lightening the burden of his post office employees, for the Christmas season at least. This Christmas all carriers will stop work at eleven o'clock. There will not be any rural delivery on Christmas Day. All parcels should be sent out two or three days earlier than usual on this account to insure prompt delivery. A delayed Christmas gift is as flat as a fire cracker which will not explode so the postal authorities urge that the public mail early.

No incoming mails will be worked after eleven o'clock on Christmas Day. On Christmas morning, however, the general delivery and parcels post window will be open from eight thirty until ten o'clock. On the evening of the twenty fourth. Christmas Eve, the post office will be open continuously from eight in the morning until eight thirty at night. In the evening only the stamp and parcel post windows will be open. This service gives belated Christmas mailers a chance to make a last minute rush.

Shingle Fire Is Soon Extinguished

Fire caught in the shingle roof of the dwelling house on 13th street owned by Mrs. L. F. McBee at five thirty o'clock last night. It is thought that a spark from the chimney ingnited the shingles.

The fire department was called and the blaze was quickly extinguished. Very little damage was done.

Hold Services For George Morrison

George Morrison 47, who was employed by the Bell County Lumber Company died at ten o'clock Monday morning at his home in the East End.

The funeral services were held at ten thirty o'clock Tuesday morning, at the residence. Interment took place at the Richardson cemetery in Tennessee.

School Notes

The Annual High School Carnival which was given at the high school building Friday night was a success in every way. It was a success financially and gave pleasure to every one present. Approximately $200.00 was taken in.

One of the most enjoyable things was the negro minstrel. It was given four times to crowded houses. Bill Haynes ,as Bill Hazelbugg, was especially good. His every movement brought a laugh. The chorus girls also brought a generous applause.

"Oh Doctor" had a very successful evening. Three performances were given by the cast.

About 150 people enjoyed going through "Hilarity Hall."

One of the best hits of the evening was "the most beautiful girl in the world." One would never believe that cosmetics and feminine finery could change Grey Chelland the bull dog tackle of the fotball squad, into a beautiful girl But it did.

Mrs. Welsheimer is getting up a play to be given in the chapel Friday evening December 19th. "Her Christmas Hat" promises to furnish a great deal of enjoyment on the most joyful of days, the last day before the Christmas holidays.

Miss Virginia Brasheer spent the week end in Knoxville visiting friends and doing Christmas shopping.

K. OF P. NOTICE!

Horse Holds Own On Canadian Farm

WINNIPEG, (AP) Any fears that the horse would be supplanted by the automobile and tractor in Canada are unfounded, it is indicated in a report of the department of agriculture, which shows the horse population of the dominion has increased 100,000 in the last year. The number was placed at 3,516,233, compared with 3,415,223 horses last year. The principal increase was in western Canada.

The increase was attributed to a revival of interest in breeding draft horses, the demand for horses for farming due to increases in agricultural production, and the greater use of horses for lumbering activities, city transportation and in other fields where horse-power compares favorably with traction power.

$5,000,000 For Fireworks

LONDON, (AP)—Guy Fawkes, the man who attempted to blow up the Houses of Parliament, was heartily condemned when his plot was discovered, but he has since grown into something of a patron saint for English small boys and makers of fireworks. Estimates of the value of fireworks consumed in celebrating his special day, November 5, this year ran as high as $5,000,000.

Germany Metal Exports Decline

NUREMBERG, (AP)—The metal ware exports of Germany recently have amounted to only about 40 percent of the pre-war figures, according to announcement of the German Metal Ware Manufacturers' Association. The decline, it is said, is due to the protective measures adopted by many countries which formerly consumed considerable quantities of German goods.
